RESIDENTIAL DESIGN GUIDE

Volume 3

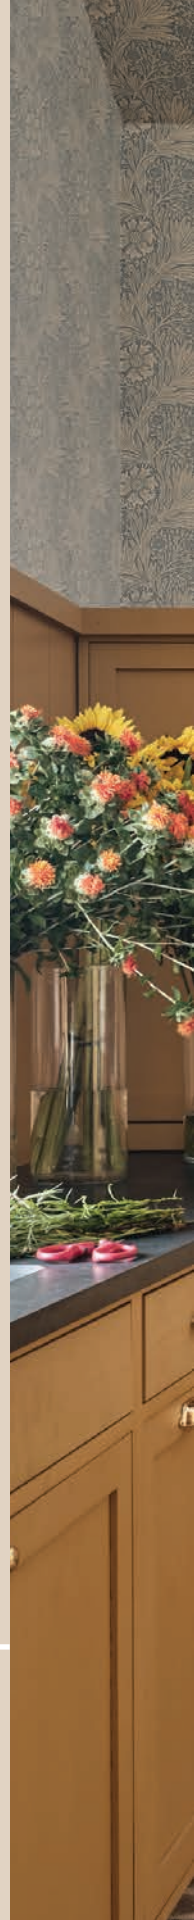

Design THAT INSPIRES

Natural, organic, healthy and happy – homes are more than just a place to live; they're extensions of ourselves, and what we're striving for more than ever is a sense of well-being. Through simplified living, eco-friendly materials and a focus on health and wellness, our homes are reflecting our personalities, our values and our changing needs.

We're here to help you tap into your creativity with help from our Design and Insights team and some of our favorite influencers. We've gathered our top design trends that are new, now and making themselves known. Flip through this guide and see what inspires you.

IN TOUCH WITH NATURE

“Nothing beats a light, neutral design with a hint of live greenery to brighten my home and create warmth.”

- Lauren Jansen @farmhouseish

Seek to create a soothing space that's also good for the environment, with eco-friendly materials including bamboo, stainless steel and other sustainable design choices.

COMPARE AND CONTRAST

“I love pops of color. It makes me so happy every time I step into our kitchen.”

- Molly Stillman @stillbeingmolly

Stand out with contrasting cabinetry, backsplashes or hardware to break up space and add a unique personal touch to your kitchen.

KEEP CLUTTER AT BAY

“Organization is a necessity. Built-in shelves and baskets help hide things you don't need to see all the time.”

– Rashida Banks @rashida.banks

Workstation sinks come with helpful space-saving accessories to maximize prep space and make cleanup easy.
